Time Capsule - Year 1976

by Anne Lunde (1969)

On March 31, 1976, Taft High School students had packed up some of their treasured memorabilia, sealed in plastic bags, into a picnic cooler. The cooler was buried, under a layer of tar, in the plaza near the Hurlbut Street front entrance, with instructions to dig up the time capsule at the beginning of the new century. That proved more of a challenge since its original marker stone was vandalized and removed years ago.

Dr. John Graven, principal during the 1976 Heritage Day celebration, returned to remember the delivery of the time capsule by a 1776 Revolutionary War honor guard, a U.S. Army helicopter landing on the front lawn, cutting of a Bicentennial birthday cake, and a ring of students, arm-in-arm around the entire building, while the capsule was buried.

"For those of us who were there on that day, the memory shall never be forgotten," he added. Graven remembered his nine years as Taft principal, from 1969 to 1978, as the golden years of his 38-year career as teacher, principal and central office administrator "because of the students' academic excellence, their school spirit, the parental involvement and commitment to the school and to the community, the dedicated and creative faculty, and the community at large who contributed positively to the welfare and success of Taft High School. This spirit continues today because of the efforts of the Alumni Association."

As three alumni from the class of 1977 opened the cooler and displayed the contents, they remarked how well the items survived the test of time. Included with many other items were a photograph of William Howard Taft, copies of play programs, A Taft Traveling Troupe performance shirt, a girls' gym suit and a Chicago Tribune newspaper. Contents from the time capsule will be placed in a display case at the school.

Newest Hall of Fame Honorees

by Anne Lunde (1969)

A judge, a legislator, an author, an actor and an artist went back to Taft High School on May 26 to be honored in the Taft Alumni Hall of Fame.

"One is tempted to look backwards, at the great time we had here," said Judge Wayne Andersen (1963), who serves on the federal bench in the Northern District of Illinois. He remembered with special fondness English teacher Dan Lyons and social studies teacher Irv Stein and "what they taught me. People should be free to express ideas and we shouldn't be afraid of people being different." He paid tribute to the TAA and president Kay Kuciak for keeping the spirit of Taft alive.

He recently established an award to honor Taft students who achieve top scores on the required U.S. Constitution test.

Andersen went from Taft to Harvard University and the U. of IL College of Law, and a staff position with state Rep. Henry Hyde. He later served as deputy secretary of state under future Gov. Jim Edgar, specializing in traffic safety. He was elected to Cook County Circuit Court in 1984 and to the federal bench in 1991.

State Senator Richard Klemm (1950), R-32nd, recalled coming back to high school is not the same. "Sometimes you're disappointed. I see the growth of Taft, the impact. You can see the changes and enthusiasm of the young people."

He remembered when he first went to Springfield, he was one of five Taft graduates in the Illinois General Assembly. Also there were state Rep. Ralph Capparelli and state Rep. Lynn Martin (both inducted to the Alumni Hall of Fame in 1989), Loleta Didrickson (later state comptroller) and state Sen. James DeLeo. Sometimes he said, the relationship and trust they had as alumni served them well in overcoming political partisanship to pass worthy bills.

Klemme earned his engineering degree from Purdue U. and is a Korean War veteran. He heads the family business, Food Warming Equipment Co. He held positions in township government, was president of the District 46 Board of Education and chairman of the McHenry County Board before running for the general assembly in 1980. After terms in the Illinois House of Representatives, he ran successfully for the senate seat.

"As we grow older there is a tendency to look to the past, and the teachers who simply made us think," said Richard Lindberg (1971). "I came from a family of modest means. My grades were in a comfortable range. I had a vague notion of wanting to be a professional writer." He was pushed beyond complacency by some determined faculty members, and "the honor would not have been possible" without them, Lindberg added, citing English teacher Alice Jerusal, social studies teachers Nick Mitchell and Gerald Cuny, and music teacher Mila Nolan. Nolan and Cuny, Lyons and Stein were among the audience members.

Lindberg's interest in sports in general and the Chicago White Sox in particular prompted him to write six books on the Sox, including "Who's On Third?", "The Chicago White Sox Story" in 1983 and "Stealing First in a Two-Team Town" in 1994. He was named official historian for the team in 1985. Other books have focused on Chicago's ethnic diversity and its infamous history, including "Chicago Ragtime," "To Serve and Collect..." a history of the Chicago Police, and his latest, "Return to the Scene of the Crime: A Guide to Infamous Places in Chicago."

Dr. Robert Forney (1944) sent classmate Ed Ferguson to accept his award. Forney, a retired chemical engineer who spent his career of nearly 40 years with DuPont, was traveling in Syria. He remembered being at Taft as the U.S. entered WWII, facing the impact of D-Day just before graduation and seeing friends go off into service, to be injured or killed in action. When Taft formed its Army ROTC unit, Ferguson and Forney were among those who joined.

"How grateful I am to be a graduate of Taft High School, said George Zima (1945). I feel privileged. I'm very humbled." In context of the Memorial Day weekend, he remembered several classmates who lost their lives in WWII. "None of us would be here without their sacrifice."

Zima and his sister had worked as a dance team, performing at the USO and around the Chicago area. After Taft, where he was a cheerleader and band member, he studied to be a teacher. Mid-career he headed to Broadway, where he worked in famous productions from "Pal Joey" and "Gypsy" to "Most Happy Fella". His TV career included Mary Martin's "Peter Pan," "Captain Kangaroo," appearances on many variety shows and some dramatic work. He returned to teaching, retiring as an elementary school principal, and now teaches dance for the Wheaton Park District.

Nancy Noble Zorick (1964) also paid tribute to teacher Dan Lyons, for helping her take a drama class during high school. After Taft she had started a career as a commercial artist but parts in Chicago area theater led her to a brief film career in CA. After meeting her future husband, Mike, who competed as a runner and wrestler despite a sight disability, she switched her career back to art and has won awards for her work. The couple visit schools as inspirational speakers, discussing their life experiences.

The final inductee was Kay Carlson Kuciak (January 1963). She received the most nominations for the hall of fame of any candidate over the years.

She answered a call for help from Taft's principal Sam Ozaki in 1983 to help organize the alumni association and has been its president ever since. They started with a list of 100 names. She and her husband Tom Kuciak (June 1962) have worked as a team, with Tom handling data input for a mailing list, which has grown to more than 16,000 names.

Since Tom's retirement as a customer services manager for Sprint/Centel, the couple is relocating from Des Plaines to Arizona. They appear together in the photo on the Hall of Fame wall.

Welcome Class of 2000

Congratulations to the new graduating class of 2000! You are now part of a special group of men and women known as alumni of Taft High School.

The purpose of the Taft Alumni Association is to provide means for Taft alumni to continue or renew friendships begun at Taft, provide service to the school and most importantly to preserve its history. We publish a newsletter approximately four times a year to let you know what other alumni are doing, keep you informed of activities affecting the Taft community and to invite you to special events at Taft.

As you continue your education, work a full-time job, or get married, remember us. Drop a line to let us know your new name or address and what you have been doing since graduation. This information will be very helpful for your first class reunion five or ten years from now.

An application form to join the Association is on the last page of this newsletter. The membership fee is $10 - which covers two years of membership. Considering the rising costs of printing and postage of these newsletters, that's a pretty nice bargain! Best of luck to you. Hold your head high and be proud to say you came from Taft High School.

ABC's of Reunion Planning

Our January 1946 class has been very active since graduation. Two years ago Maryean Meisner Flom (June 1946) wrote to us saying she didn't know why the June 1946 class wasn't included in the January 1946 reunion. Bonnie and Gene Nugent (Minnesota), Audrey Peterson Anderson (Florida) and Barbara Lawton Loesch (Florida) have been doing all the planning work from out of town. For a small class (about 125 graduates) they do very well. There were 72 people at their 50th reunion, then had a cruise two years later and had 69 people attending their 54th - the latest reunion this past May. We hope the June 1946 class can take inspiration from their efforts to generate their own plans.

Last August, Bea Lorbis Harsch (CA), Bonnie Weidman Nugent (MN) and Barbara Lawton Loesch (FL) (all from January 1946 class), met Maryane Paddi Struberg (June 1946) on Rodeo Drive in Los Angeles, CA for lunch, as she was interested in doing a reunion for her June 1946 class with classmate, Don Gloor. They had a fun visit, but concrete reunion plans never materialized.

Anyone in the June 1946 class (or any other class, for that matter) can write the Taft Alumni Association for a list of their classmates, as long as it is used for reunion purposes only. The next step would be to write to each of the classmates listed and ask if they know any other classmates' addresses. The list grows quickly.

After the January 1946 committee chose a meeting place, Audrey Peterson Anderson did all the business with the hotel (banquet room, etc.), Bonnie & Gene Nugent worked on the menu and Barbara

Lawton Loeschen did all the general correspondence. It's not difficult, but it is time consuming. Thanks to Barb Loeschen for all her details on the works behind the scenes. So, as Barb says, "Get your old Taft High spirit going, Class of June 46 and JUST DO IT!"

Letters to the Editor

Subj.: Clifford Miller

Kay: Regarding the "In Our Memories" column, I recognized the name Clifford Miller with the notation he was in the "class of 1955". I was well acquainted with a Cliff Miller from the June class of 1951. Are these one and the same?

I enjoy the newsletter and thank you for the splendid job you and all the are doing to keep decades of the Taft alumni abreast of the news, even though some of it seems trivial to others.

Tom Ohman June 1951

I want to thank Claire McCormack Burnett (1986) for writing so insightfully and honestly about "peer abuse." In today's media saturation, it often seems as if this behavior is viewed as a recent phenomenon of the 80's and 90's. But ask anyone my age (50) if they enjoyed high school and – unless they were part of the elite cheerleading/football crowd – almost all will answer with a resounding "No!" Not surprisingly, most will also reveal memories of the private hells they endured from various forms of peer abuse.

Those of us from the Class of '68 cannot possibly forget one of the most brutal examples of peer abuse that occurred throughout our four years of high school: the ruthless taunting and cruel antagonism toward one of our classmates who was truly not like any of us. She was known as "Crazy Chris."

Chris was unattractive, lived with her grandparents (no one seemed to know where her parents were), had a tormented physical demeanor and often mumbled incoherently to herself. When taunted – usually by the popular football honchos who dictated the Who's Who list in Taft's social strata – she could be provoked to loud and angry outbursts, spoken in a language that only Chris understood.

But Chris was also a talented artist, focusing her creative energy on intricate drawings of her beloved deep-sea divers. She was obsessed with these characters -- they lived in their own world under the sea, far away from the cruelty of life above ground. As I remember them, her drawings depicted divers making phenomenal discoveries of treasures buried deep below the surface, accomplishing great feats of personal endurance.

Chris herself must have had to dig deep to endure the tortured life of a misfit in the bland, white, orderly world of Taft in the 60's. I do not remember any teachers or administrators stepping in to stop the abuse. The silence sent a message though: it was tacit approval of the behavior of Chris' tormenters. After all, they were "normal."

And what about the rest of us? Though many of us never uttered a cruel word toward Chris, neither did we jump to her defense. To my knowledge, none of us demanded intervention by Taft's administration. I do remember Peggy Sullivan – bless her good heart – trying to bring Chris into the fold of normality by having her brother take her to a prom. I hope the experience was a happy one for Chris.

When I think of Chris, I wonder if she has survived and thrived. Hopefully, her undeniable artistic strength and talent have helped her to endure. But most of all, I hope the voices of her tormenters no longer echo through her mind, as they did through the hallways of Taft for four relentless years.

Alexis Bernard (June '68)

[Ed. Note: I have to disagree with your assessment of high school memories. There were many of us who did not follow the "Cheerleading/football crowd" who have good memories of our years at Taft. Just read the letters from alumni who write each issue. We joined band, drama club, chorus, school newspaper, debate club, French club, Student Council, GAA, teacher helpers, ROTC, and on and on. Or we did activities at the local parks, worked part-time jobs, volunteered as Candy Strippers at Resurrection Hospital, attended MYF, YMCA or other local organizations outside the school. Teen-age years can be tormenting. Not because of other's actions, but due to our own lack of confidence. It is part of the growing experience. Some felt it harder, perhaps than others, but all of us were exposed to it.

As for the young lady you described, I believe I met her around 1985 at a Rachel Carson Society meeting I attended a few times. It involved local SCUBA divers in an ecological project at Navy Pier and she came in and also volunteered. She desperately wanted to dive with us, but all were leery of accepting her offer, as a diving "buddy" is someone for whom one's life depends on. As a stranger, who acted perhaps quite "differently" she was treated politely, but not really accepted. She had {at that time} just finished completing a diving course in Texas to become certified as a "Professional SCUBA diver", but it did not help her fit better into society. We found an assignment within the project that she could do that was not involved with diving. Chris was her own person and appeared to learn to live with life as it was dealt to her. I do not know if she is a member of the Taft Alumni Association, but if so, we are glad she is and hope she enjoys being a part of something we are proud of.

It is unfortunate that some students have [had] the immaturity to taunt others. I see programs in my grandchildren's schools today trying to undo that wrong by teaching tolerance of others different than ourselves, whether physical or mental. They are learning through school what parents have neglected to teach at home. I applaud their efforts and see positive results in the newest generation to be exposed to better ways to deal with peer pressures and abuses. Let us do our part in a positive action by example - in treating all people as we would wish for ourselves. Note the following letter. J. Bloom, Editor]

Dear Editor: The last two issues of the newsletter contained articles telling of very unhappy experiences at Taft. Very sad! However, we must remember that social interaction is a two-way experience with responsibilities on both sides.

In future newsletters I'm hoping to read the thoughts of alumni who matured and learned from their experiences at Taft and who realize how fortunate we all were to have attended such a fine school.

I want to comment on how much I enjoy the Alumni Newsletter. Especially reading about my classmates and hearing about what they are doing now. I do have to comment that my years at Taft seem like a blur. I enjoyed the high school years of my 3 children, much more than my own.

My children were very surprised to look at my yearbook and discover the lack of sports teams and activities for females. I am very pleased at the progress of girls activities in the schools today. My husband, John and myself have been very active in youth sports here in Buffalo Grove. We spent 16 years in the youth baseball organization. We've also coached, refereed, kept score and generally did whatever we could as our children played in basketball, football, volleyball, school plays; you name it. We believe strongly that our young people need a way to channel their energy in a positive way. Team activities teach our young people respect for themselves and each other.

We're very proud of our children. Our oldest son, Chris just graduated from John Marshall Law School. We are anxiously awaiting the results of the Bar Exam. Our daughter, Carey is completing her Massage Therapist Certification Program, and our youngest, Curtis is in his second year at West Point and trying his hardest to be a team quarterback!

Supporting our children during their school years was personally very rewarding and definitely a lot of fun.

Thank you for your efforts in putting together a great newsletter.

Hi Editor Jerry,

You have heard from me before on the enjoyment I receive from our Taft Alumni Newsletter and also response from former Taftites. After reading of Frank Diederich (June 1942) reminiscences, I am glad I was able to enjoy a different version during my years at Taft 1942-1946. Even today as some of my classmates and I meet each year, we have many different views of growing up at Taft in those years. Teachers, classes and friends, Social life, clothes and rules still provide some laughs. Now the class of January 1946 is planning a 54th reunion in May because we have so much fun getting together and sharing our Taft years.

Dear Kay,

Can't tell you how sad I felt, hearing that Henry Vandenberg (June 1942) had passed away. He was such a wonderful young man in high school, always a gentleman and so nice to everyone.

The one thing that my girlfriend Sis Harris & I marveled at was, Henry had not changed in looks and stature when we met him at the 50th reunion.

Like everyone, we wondered who it was who put the ad in. So nice to know it was Henry. It sounds like something he would do, to give back to his alma mater.

I believe we'd all like to know how Henry spent his years since leaving school. Could an article be written on him? He should be remembered by us all.

Dear Editor:

Before I joined the alumni association a friend of mine sent me copies of several past editions of the newsletter. In one of them reference was made to a prior issue that had featured the late Ral Donner, Taft's own version of Elvis Presley. At the time I was disappointed that I had not been able to contribute a few of my own memories of Ral to that article. However, when I recently came across the enclosed photograph of him, I decided to send it along to you in hopes that you might want to share with your readers.

It was taken in the summer of 1954 in the backyard of my parent's home at 6665 W. Raven St. (Ral is the batter on the right and my late brother Rick [Terry] is the one on the left. They were teammates on my father's little league team that summer at Norwood Park.)

In addition to being coached by my Dad, "Ralphie," as he was known to us back in the mid 1950s, was a frequent visitor to the Terry's residence. In fact for a couple of years there it almost seemed as if he had become somewhat of a second younger brother to me. Probably my fondest memories of Ral center around hot-summer afternoons on our screened in back porch, where he and I would often sit for hours playing my All-star baseball game. In don't believe that he played any real baseball after the little league, but by then, as I recall, he had already begun to sing regularly at the Baptist church. While I heard him perform there and knew early on that he had a wonderful voice, what I remember most about him from those days is what a great kid he was and what a good friend he was to my family. I didn't see much of Ral in the years right after this photo was taken and I never saw him again after I graduated from Taft and left Chicago. Nevertheless, my 91-year-old mother and I both remember him fondly and continue to be saddened by his tragically premature death.

"In Our Memories" Spring 2000

I'm sure you must have heard from at least a handful of June '51 graduates by this time placing the late Cliff Miller in this class. Cliff and I shared a number of classes, as well as numbers of hours shooting baskets in his backyard, and numbers of hours studying together during our years at Taft. It's great to look back at those years, and know that I still have friendships from then (see Newsletter Fall 1999 article). From what I've seen, you and your staff put out a fine publication, and I'll be looking forward to the next issue. My youngest daughter is a Taft alumnae, and I'll have to put her onto our newsletter. She is, I believe, of the class of '87.

Dear Alumni Association:

Your made a mistake in the letter I wrote to Kay about the information on ordering a class ring. The name you put on the letter was Dan Clark. The right name is Richard Clark, class of January 1964.

[Sorry, Richard - thank you for pointing it out for us and other alumni readers.]

Dear Jerry,

I've been seeing your name everywhere!! Last night I was catching up on some old Alumni Newsletters and of course I saw your name. I especially liked the article about the school store on Nagle Avenue. I have some vague memories of buying drafting equipment, gym uniforms and school locks from that store in 1954. I don't believe I ever realized it was a teenage hangout though. Maybe the concept had changed from the author's year (1940) to the mid-fifties. When I deliver door flyers to that section of the neighborhood I see the building that meets the public sidewalk. I was pretty sure that this was the old store but this article confirms it. It would be interesting to get more Taftite memories through the 1940's and up to its closing in ????. You of course remember the little store on New Hampshire Ave. which was the school store for the old Norwood Park School on the corner of Hurlbut and New Hampshire. I never saw the old school but you could sure buy a lot of penny candy and baseball bubblegum cards at that store. It also has been turned into a residence.

Dear Alumni:

I thought you might enjoy seeing a photo that was [taken] at the picnic for the January 1955 class in September 1999. (We are hoping that all of these friends, plus the members of the class who were unable to attend the picnic will be at our more "traditional" reunion on October 7, 2000 at the Best Western Midway, in Elk Grove.)

Thank you for all you do to keep us in touch with each other and those from other classes who we were privileged to know!

taught by Mrs. Wolufka (sp?). Is that possible? He would have attended around 1924-26. The neighborhood store on New Hampshire was still selling penny candy until about 1958. Great stop on way back to school after lunch! J. Bloom]

Dear Alumni Officers:

Recently I made the acquaintance of Phyllis (Beltle) Brown of Bartlett, IL. During the course of conversation we discovered that we were both graduates of Taft High School, She in June 1963 and I in June of 1940.

Phyllis gave me the Autumn 1999 and Winter 2000 issues of the Taft Alumni Newsletter, which I enjoyed reading. I didn't recognize any names in either issue nor did I see anyone listed as a graduate from the 1940 class.

My class of June 1940 was the very first to graduate from Taft - but only after one year as classmates. We had spent our first three years at different high schools, and consequently knew only those students who graduated from the same grade school. Mine was Ebinger on Pratt Avenue in Edison Park.

After reading letters from and about former Taft students I found that none went back as far as my class, although 1941 was mentioned. Just wanted you to know that some of us from that June 1940 class are still alive and kicking!

As early as the third grade, Peggy (Mayer) Goodman, Norma (Pfeifer) Walter, Elsa Hand and I Katheryn (Mitchell) Frost became close friends. In high school we were known as the "clover Debs," and what fun we had with that!

Our graduation prom was held at the Orington Roof Gardens in Evanston - on a night of heavy rain, which took the dancing inside to a very crowded dance floor.

In 1960, our class had a 20th reunion, but I have heard nothing from anyone connected with Taft since that time. How, thanks to Phyllis, I have a connection with Taft and would surely be interested to know if any of my classmates are still around - particularly those from Ebinger. Peggy Mayer is deceased, Norma Pfeifer (a widow) still lives in Edison Park, and her two daughters graduated from Ebinger and Taft. I've lost touch with Elsa Hand - her last known address was Arcadia, Ca. I live in Glen Ellyn, IL with my husband, Jack. We have three married children, six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. My brother, Bob Mitchell graduated from Taft in June of 1946. He now resides in Arizona with his wife.

I've enjoyed reminiscing about those years so long ago, and wish you continued success in your endeavor to keep in touch. Enclosed you find my subscription to the Taft Alumni Newsletter which will, at some time I trust, include mention of some of my former classmates.

Thanks for the effort on your part to link old folks to other old folks who all used to be young. It took a lot of web searching, for years, to find you. I just found this e-mail address; I am joining the TAA today by sending my check. Will send a resume as soon as I get my membership. Was in the class of June 55 but had to go another semester so ended up Jan 56.

Remembering Our Teachers...

Hi: Was not aware association was so active until given a gift subscription by friend and former classmate Helen (Booth) Fess. Have been enjoying it and wish to continue.

Lost my yearbook many years ago in a flood so it is hard to connect names and faces.

It was good to see picture of "Pops" Rapier. I was in band, played clarinet. It was in time passed on to our son and later to a granddaughter. Memorable other teachers Mr. Miller, Mrs. Strait and Dr. Buchwalter.

Look forward to each issue. Thank you for your efforts.

Ruth (Wenzel) Henrikson (January 1944)

Dear Editor:

As I perused the latest issue of the Taft Alumni Newsletter, I checked my address label and, lo and behold, my membership expired in January of this year! Enclosed please find my check for $10 to cover another subscription.

I thoroughly enjoy reading the newsletter - the picture of "Pops" Rapier in this issue brought tears to my eyes - he was my mentor - my hero - he truly made my high school years special. What a lovely gift, to see his dear face again - and at Riverview of all places! (It was) Another favorite place of mine. I am very long gone from Chicago - have lived out on the west coast for the major portion of my adult life - but I will always have fond memories of growing up in Chicago. I am looking forward with great anticipation to the reunion of the 1945 class in September.

Another familiar name that popped out at me in this issue was Germaine Petermann (June 1945) - I remember her so well - don't know if she still remembers me. I'm hoping she will be at the reunion also.

Thanks so very much for all the dedication and hard work that goes into putting out this fine publication.

Hello. My name is Jeannette Burchfield Keenan, class of 1965. My mom is Beatrice J. Burchfield, former math teach at Taft from 1962 to 1972. She and I are now living (with my dad) at 2405 Whitney Ave., #208, Hamden, CT 06518. I am a pediatric nurse practitioner student at Yale University School of Nursing, having finally figured out what I am supposed to do when I grow up. (I spent over 20 years in government service as a health policy analyst and health care administrator before going to nursing school.) Mom and I enjoy reading the bulletin when we get it. She is doing really well for her 87 years. I am truly blessed.

I am responding to something that I read in the Names in the News section of the Alumni Newsletter. It was about Richard Carsello (1967) who had just located his long lost son, after a ten-year search. When I saw Rich's name the first thing that came to mind was "Stretch" because that is what we all called him back in high school, probably because he was so long and lanky. Then I thought about all the great fun we all had back then, he was one of the funniest people I've ever met, and a great friend to boot. So when I read about him finding his son I just had to write to let him know that someone back in Chicago was happy for him.

Why Should I Pay Dues?

The Taft Alumni Association is run by a group of dedicated volunteers who continue to hold a special attachment to Taft, even years after graduation. The membership dues cover costs of maintaining alumni records, publishing quarterly newsletters and coordinating reunion plans. We endeavor to furnish an annual scholarship to a deserving senior financed through special donations. Through membership dues, fundraisers and donations, we occasionally sponsor productions at Taft to encourage continuing interest in the drama department. Some of our efforts are "Mame" (1991), "Play On" (Fall 1991), "Bye, Bye Birdie (1992), and "The Dining Room" (1993). Taft students then performed a special drama workshop headed by a Taft alumnus with a specially written play in 1994.

Also, we provided funds for buying hats and overlays for the marching band and a laser printer for the journalism department. Recently, we purchased four new trophy cases that sit in the Hall of Fame area just off the front entrance of the school (Hurlbut Avenue side). A freestanding school sign at the corner of Hurlbut and Northcott is also a new addition, thanks to "your" funding.

It is an advantage to have your name listed in our alumni file, so it will be available for a class reunion when one of your class members (or even you!) decide to probe such a possibility. With Alumni Association guidelines and assistance, this venture is much easier to arrange.

Membership dues to become a member of the Taft Alumni Association are $10, which covers two years. Why bother? What do I get from it? Yes, I'm already an alumnus, so why do I need a "membership card"?

As "Sponsoring Alumni" you can help make this association the largest, most responsive group of high school alumni in the area. It is a fact that Taft graduates are dedicated to the school's principles and carry forth a tradition with which few other high schools can compare. We got our roots at Taft and they are strong and enduring. Non-paying Taftites reading this are invited and encouraged to join the 3,500 supporting Eagles. We've held this cost down for quite a while now, and hope to continue to provide the best service for the lowest cost possible to allow more alumni to continue to participate.

We go forward with pride and determination. Helping where needed, the Association works closely with the PTA and Local School Council. Your financial aid will strengthen our treasury and give additional confidence to our alumni volunteers. You were an Eagle in high school. Now join the Alumni Association and soar like an Eagle for the rest of your life!
